Blog is now Closed!

Hi All, I'm sad to say this Blog is now Closed! There were too many issues the the model. And I had to send it back! And request a refund for the Kit! It would have been an awesome build. But with all the cracks that the model had. I felt it was not worth keeping the Kit! And after purchasing the kit. And discovering all the cracks I saw. I lost total interest in the Kit and the Build! Linberg 40" Chris Craft Sports Fisherman build. Now closed indefinitely! Cheers, Ed PS. See me at my other Blogs!

Blame it on Corona!

Well, my Christ Craft model. Is delayed by I don't know how many days! The postal service is running very slowly! Due to Corona, so they say! So, All I can do is wait patiently! For my package to arrive! I do have good news! But, that's another Blog! So, for now! I'm just playing the waiting game! Tick, Tock, Tick, Tock!

Linberg 40" Christ Craft Sports Fisherman!

My model finally arrived! This model is from the early 50's! It's in real good shape! The last owner kept in in very good conditions! The kit that is! I think the Kit has more value unbuilt! The kit makes for a very good collectors item! Makes me think? Hum, What if I don't build it! Someone would want to buy forward! Or is that sell it forward..... Hum, decision decision??? Nah, Just joking! Of course I'm going to build it! I've been looking for this kit for a long time! I finally have one! Take my time building her!!!!??

Tracking Update!

Yay, My Christ Craft Sports Fisherman Model. Is on it's way! It was in a facility for about 1 month! The postal service is now moving it in my direction! I'm not sure when it will arrive. But, it is on it's way! And to think I almost put in a PayPal Claim! I actually got in contact with the Merchant. I purchased the model from! I think I made him Panic! As I threaten to put in a claim with PayPal! But, now my Package is on it's way to me! So, who's at fault the Postal Service! That's Who! Never the less, It's on it's way! Looks as if I'll have a boat to build. In the not to distant future!.....?

Fly Sky, Wheel Controller!

Look what arrived today! My FlySky Wheel Controller! It's a pretty decent looking controller! All I did was put in some Double A Batteries! Turned it on! But, I need to order a Servo! I'm not sure if the Christ Craft model. Will use a standard servo. Or an S9 servo! My model is delayed! So, I can't tell which servo to purchase! That remind me! I need an ESC as well! But, will order in due time! For now, I'm off to my 3D printer Blog!
